A special meeting was convened as a follow-up to the Regular meeting held on Tuesday, April 7, regarding the public meeting which will be held on April 28, 2015. The purpose of this session will be to inform the residents of the Town's opportunity to assume ownership of the Cupids Legacy Centre to be used as the Municipal Building. It was agreed that Dan Noseworthy, Regional Director, Eastern Office of Municipal and Intergovernmental Affairs be asked to facilitate this meeting.

It was also agreed by all councillors present, that the residents should vote on this issue, at a plebiscite, (following the guidelines set out by Municipal Affairs), to take place on Wednesday, April 29th.

The wording on the ballot will be: DO YOU AGREE WITH THE TOWN TAKING OWNERSHIP OF THE CUPIDS LEGACY CENTRE TO BECOME THE CUPIDS MUNICIPAL BUILDING

YES NO.

Posters to be placed and announcements to be made as per a regular Election. The Town Clerk will act as the Returning Officer

Meeting adjourned at 8:00 p.m.

Ivy King, Town Clerk
